CONFERENCE SESSIONS

Telematics India 2015

DAY-2

27 AUGUST

Automotive Telematics Ecosystem

A thought leadership session on India's heterogeneous automotive telematics ecosystem, which will help us understand how they are aligning with the unfolding opportunities, be it the passenger car OEM or commercial truck maker; a telco or a Tier-1.

Connected Vehicles in India

As the user expectations grow, automotive OEMs together with other ecosystem players work beyond their core competencies to deliver the 'Connected Vehicle'. Join us to see the Connected Vehicles unfolding in India and how it fits into the massive Internet of Things (IoT) landscape.

Commercial Fleet Telematics

The fluctuating fuel prices, excessive idling and on-transit pilferage make fuel optimization must for fleet owners. Commercial fleet telematics is emerging as a preferred and proven solution for trucking, public transport and city cabs. Watch out service providers' industry experience and information on new products in this session!

In-car Infotainment

Major passenger car makers in India have announced INFOTAINMENT even in some of their entry-level models with apps and interactive features on top of it. The telematics industry would be evolving here on helping them understand the consumer's need and interest. This session would explore infotainment in India and its possibility of becoming a key purchase factor in coming days.

Vehicle Tracking: Beyond dots on maps

Vehicle Tracking Systems (VTS) today is moving ahead of track and trace. The users are exploring new features like driver behavior management, vehicle health monitoring, remote diagnostics, in-cab coaching and others. Industry leaders and user organizations will share their exclusive user case-studies and perspective.

Usage Based Insurance (UBI)

The Indian motor insurance carriers have been carrying out pilot-trials on Insurance Telematics. They have continually evolved in nearing a commercially viable product. Insurance experts will be sharing their views on regulation related to UBI, device cost, consumer awareness; OEM-Insurer relationship and smartphone-based UBI models.

Connected Driver: ADAS to Autonomous

It all starts with few cameras and sensors fitted in the vehicle but can go as typical as Automatic Cruise Control and Automated Parking. Let alone the driver safety and fuel economy, the Advanced Driving Assistance Systems (ADAS) of today are fast becoming foreshadow of the most frequently used buzzword in the automotive industry on date - the 'self-driving' vehicle.

Telematics enabling Smart Mobility

Smart Mobility will play an important role in realizing the 'Smart Cities' plan. This session will explore how connectivity and telematics can safeguard the way one moves from one place to another and how it improves the overall transportation infrastructure. Also, how car-sharing and car-rentals are evolving in this telematics ecosystem.
